LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Legislative Council will try to wind up action on budget requests today or tomorrow, Chairman Marshall Shackelford of El Dorado said today.

Budgets not completed this week may have to be presented to the General Assembly's budget committee during the regular session which starts Jan. 12, the senator said.

Awaiting action are some of the biggest budgets presented to the council. They represent about half of the state's annual spending. Included in these budgets are those of the Arkansas Highway Department, University of Arkansas, State Medical Center and the Arkansas Game & Fish Commission. Some other budgets, controversial ones, are scheduled for reconsideration by the council. But Shackelford said he doubted these could be brought up again as such a move would require a two-thirds majority vote.

Yesterday the council recon-

Women Gets 2 Years for Embezzlement

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Dora Mae Pratt, 46, former manager of the Dixie Shop here, yesterday was sentenced to two years imprisonment on her plea of guilty to a charge of embezzling $2,000 from the store.

She was arrested in December, 1957, while still managing the chain store.

After being released on bond, Mrs. Pratt left the state. She was re-arrested in Wichita, Kan., about a month ago.

Sentence was pronounced by Circuit Judge Gus W. Jones.

President Is Consulting Nixon on Policies

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House went all out today to insist that Vice President Nixon is being consulted on administration policy to be outlined in the President's State of the Union message.

A flurry of statements by presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty followed a conference Nixon had Wednesday night with three Cabinet members. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming met first at Nixon's hideaway office in the Capitol, then adjourned to a restaurant.

The conference led to reports that Nixon was moving to cut himself in on the preparation of the State of the Union message. President Eisenhower will deliver to Congress next month. Nixon was said to feel that the message may have a direct bearing on his prospects for winning the Republican presidential nomination in 1960.

Hagerty took exception to an Associated Press story saying Nixon had cut himself in. Hagerty said this implied that Nixon's views "had not been sought." He said "nothing could be further from the truth."

Hagerty later called reporters to a second news conference and said he had talked to both Eisenhower and Nixon about the story's implications.

"They both said nothing could be further from the truth," Hagerty stated.

He quoted Eisenhower that "since this ridiculous point has been raised it might be of interest" to make it known that the President's chief speech writer, Malcolm Moos, conferred for an hour with Nixon regarding the State of the Union message.

After today's National Security Council meeting, Nixon stayed behind and discussed the forthcoming address with Eisenhower for half an hour, Hagerty said.

Hagerty said Nixon reported today that he and the three Cabinet members discussed the 1959 legislative program in general terms, but reached no conclusion.

Asked whether it wasn't rather unusual for Nixon and three Cabinet members to meet by themselves for discussion of the message, Hagerty replied "not at all."

He said many such meetings of administration people always are held at this time of the year for discussion of the administration's legislative program, later set forth by the President in his State of the Union message. The message will go to the new Congress early next month.

He spoke to newsmen as Eisenhower and Nixon were attending the regular weekly meeting of the National Security Council at the White House.

There was no advance word Wednesday that Nixon planned the night meeting with the three Cabinet members.

Overland Mail Route Group Here Monday

The old Overland Mail route, the longest contract route in U.S. history, is being re-traveled by a Knoxville, Tenn. group which has the sponsorship of the Knoxville Chamber of Commerce.

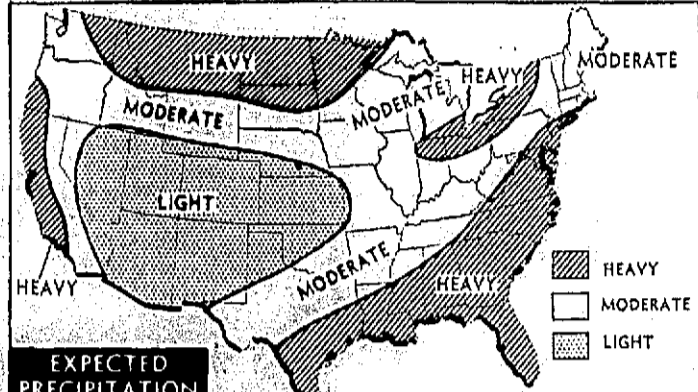

The group, five of 27 that started here, are still traveling, will be in Hope sometime Monday afternoon with three horse-drawn wagons.

The remaining five sleep "under the stars" as the original Overland travelers did. Harvey Hamilton, agent for the State, yesterday said anyone wanting to mail a letter should bring it directly to the wagons when they arrive here Dec. 15.

The mail wagons are carrying letters to the governors of all states along the route, to the President of the U.S. and the Queen of England. The Overland Mail route extended from Knoxville to Los Angeles, Calif. The group plan to travel all the way by wagon.

The temperature outlook for December calls for below seasonal normals over the northern half of the nation from the Continental Divide eastward to the Atlantic seaboard. Above normal temperatures are indicated for the California coast and Florida. In other areas near normal temperatures for the season are in prospect.

Precipitation to December is expected to exceed normal along the Gulf and Atlantic coasts, over the Northern Plains and along the West Coast. Much of the precipitation will be in the form of snow over the northern half of the nation. Subnormal amounts are expected in the Rocky Mountain states and Central Plains. Otherwise, near normal precipitation is indicated.

Truckers Go to Sleep, Almost Die

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Two truckers who went to sleep in the cab of their parked vehicle here early today were found unconscious several hours later and were hospitalized for treatment of carbon monoxide poisoning.

Attendees at a Newport hospital said the two, a 25-year-old, Gene Bogard, 27, both of near Harrisburg, apparently were on the road to recovery.

Meanwhile, officials at Lancaster, Mo., where three Arkansas truck drivers died in a bunkhouse last week, continued a probe to see if carbon monoxide poisoning had caused the deaths.

Gibbs said he and Bogard, drivers for a trucking firm owned by E. H. Halley Jr. of near Harrisburg, arrived at Newport Sunday afternoon, they parked their trucks at a service station on U.S. Highway 67 on the eastern outskirts of town and went to sleep in the cab. The engine was left running to keep the heater on.

The temperature was about 23 degrees at the time.

At 6:45 this morning, Halley drove another truck to Newport. He saw the truckers at the service station and investigated.

Halley said both men were unconscious when he opened the door of the cab. He summoned an ambulance which took the men to the hospital.

The three drivers who died in Missouri were John Parks, 28, William Biner, 22, and Louis Lee Warden, 24, all of Little Rock. They were drivers for a Malvern firm.

Lodge Tells UN of Soviet Terror Reign

By MAX HARRELSON
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge declared today that a reign of terror, carried out by Soviet agents, is continuing in full force in Hungary despite U.N. efforts.

He called on the United Nations General Assembly to condemn the Soviet Union once more and to persist in trying to end the repressive measures.

Lodge addressed the Assembly as it opened a new round of debate on the Hungarian problem which it took up first in an emergency session during the 1956 Hungarian uprising.

Lodge himself blasted the Soviet Union and the puppet Hungarian regime for the execution of former Premier Imre Nagy, Gen. Pal Malter and other leaders of the uprising. He called their execution "murder in judicial disguise."

"The Hungarian people must be relieved of that scourge of terror," Lodge declared. "Of all our aims with respect to Hungary, that is the most urgent."

Lodge formally submitted a 37-nation resolution calling on the Soviet Union and the Hungarian Red government to end repression in the battered satellite. The Assembly was expected to give the

Judge Orders Union to Comply With Reforms

WASHINGTON (AP)—A U.S. District Court judge today ordered the Teamsters Union to comply with reform orders of court-appointed monitors. The union was barred from holding a scheduled new convention next March.

Judge F. Dickinson Letts upheld complaints of a two-man majority of the three monitors that the union under President James R. Hoffa had failed to comply in good faith with reform recommendations.

Judge Letts, noting that the monitors are officers of the court and subject to the court's supervision, said they have all powers reasonably necessary to bring about a clean-up of the union.

Justice Dept. Turns Down Probe Request

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department says it lacks the authority to probe charges of irregularities in the recent general election at West Memphis, Ark.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) also said yesterday his Senate Labor Rackets Committee had no jurisdiction.

Seven residents of West Memphis had written McClellan, asking for an investigation of the Nov. 4 voting.

The Justice Department said it reviewed the complaints soon after the election and closed the case Dec. 5.

"The election involved only one federal official, the congressman from that district on the ballot, and he was spokesmen," said a Justice Department spokesman.

"Therefore," the spokesman continued, "the allegation could have altered the result of this single, unopposed federal election. Based on these facts, and in the light of the federal laws involved, there was no federal question involved."

At West Memphis, one of the signers of the letter to McClellan said it was mailed yesterday morning.

McClellan said: "I haven't received the letter, and I have no information as to its content. I never heard of it until the press called me."

"If it is a request that I investigate a state, county, or municipal election, of course I can't because my committee has no authority to do so—it has no jurisdiction of the subject matter."

The seven West Memphis residents made public the contents of the letter yesterday. Among other things, the letter charged the city's political situation "deserves a thorough airing and connection."

Another charge was that a political machine was in control.

Washington's Possibilities as a Tourist Attraction Outlined by State Publicity Commission

By CLOVIS COPELAND
Publicity and Park Commission

Probably no single community in the nation has the historical significance to as large a segment of the nation as Washington, Arkansas.

"This is vividly portrayed in the material prepared by the Arkansas History Commission and submitted to the Arkansas Legislative Council.

Actual marks of its romantic background remain in evidence, and the people are still alive who heard their parents and grandparents relate actual happenings.

Only occasionally have these gems of the past been recorded for posterity, and time is rapidly running out for the preservation of these monuments of a great and valiant people.

Unfortunately, restoration of Washington, Arkansas offers no remunerative reward to the property owners of the area. The very history of the town precludes the idea of penny-arcades and souvenir shops.

Restoration of Washington must be undertaken on a Williamsburg basis, and the cost would be only a fraction with the proper community cooperation.

There are few in the West whose ancestors did not pass this way and millions in the North and East have heard the Washington story. Unfortunately, the history of the Old Town of Washington is better known in Texas than in Arkansas.

Thousands from the Lone Star state come annually and almost reverently-practically without direction—to gaze upon the unmarked spots so important to their history.

Ultimately, it could become the state's greatest tourist attraction and its principal draw would be from the categories of the cultural groups.

Investigations of the Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission made at the request of Representative Talbot Field, Jr., and Chancellor James Pilkinton, seem to indicate that there is an active center in the Washington community working for the restoration of Washington as a historical window with a very small minority seeking to capitalize on its future development from a monetary standpoint.

A surprisingly large number of property owners in the vicinity can trace their lineage back to the Black and Bowtie-knife days in the same family.

This plan seems feasible. In cooperation with the Publicity and Parks Commission, the History Commission and the Central Arkansas Historical Society, the State Historical Commission, set South

Millwee May Teach at University

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Retired Associate Justice Minor W. Millwee of the Arkansas Supreme Court says he is considering a teaching position at the University of Arkansas School of Law.

He retired from the bench several weeks ago because of ill health. He was defeated for another term last summer by Jim Johnson of Crossett.

Millwee said he would make a decision on the possibility of teaching about the first of the year.

The full force of the cold air from the midlands hit the East and South, dropping temperatures to low marks for the season in some areas.

It was below zero in parts of northern New England.

Zero weather was in prospect deep into the mountains of West Virginia and western Virginia, with freezing temperatures ranging southward to the Carolinas and northern Georgia. The cold air mass remained nearly stationary in the Ohio Valley.

More snow fell in areas from northern Ohio into western New York. Oswego, N.Y., hit by more than 5 feet of snow since Sunday got another half a foot overnight.

The snow depth in the Lake Ontario city measured 77 inches, nearly 3/4 foot. The fall at Erie, Pa., was 20 inches and at Syracuse, N.Y., 9 inches.

OSWEGO, N.Y. (AP)—Hope gave way to renewed gloom today in this blizzard-stricken city as residents awoke to new snow and a forecast of more.

Another four inches had fallen overnight raising to about 6 1/2 feet the thick, white blanket that has broken roofs, buildings and business, and almost broken spirit here in the last five days.

Two local building contractors estimated that damage has reached $500,000 and probably would go higher.

The battle to repair damage and prevent more resumed today in zero temperatures with drifts more than 20 feet high.

Three families were reported evacuated from their homes during the night because of collapsing roofs.

So far, no injuries have been reported.

Most roads in the area had been opened and food supplies were considered adequate.

A contractor's warehouse and an oil company building collapsed Wednesday and roofs of at least three other business places gave way.

Householders cleared snow from rooftops when cracks appeared in the walls of many dwellings.

Wednesday there was some sunshine and the heavy snow tapered off.

Schools were expected to reopen Friday. Industries recalled workers.

Equipment loaned by Rochester during the most severe storms earlier in the week was recalled.

Record Cold in East, Snow Moves to South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Record cold bore down hard on the East today and snow fell in the South.

Eleven days before the official start of winter temperatures dropped to -22 in Broomville in the Adirondack foothills and -20 in North Creek, N.Y. Phillipsburg, Pa., had -17.

The -12 in Burlington, Vt., the -4 in Providence, R.I., and the -2 in Pittsburgh set new records for the day.

Snow fell in Atlanta, Ga., where the temperature dipped below the freezing level early in the day. The Carolinas had 1 to 5 inches of snow.

Deeper in Dixie rain fell. Thunderstorms developed in Florida. The snow-sick residents of Oswego, N.Y., awoke to find more snow and a forecast of still more to come. An additional four inches fell overnight, raising the accumulation to about 6 1/2 feet. It was an even zero there.

Fresh snow fell from the Iowa-Minnesota border eastward into Michigan and Indiana.

Chilicians, who were taking a breather after clearing away Monday's six-inch snow, went to work today in ankle-deep snow.

But the Midwest was a bit warmer.

December's cold wave relaxed a little in the midcontinent today but there wasn't much relief in other areas in the Eastern half of the nation.

Although temperatures moderated in the central part of the country, it was still cold, with below zero temperatures again this morning in some northern Midwest sections.

ended pay raises of almost 50 percent for the state's 18 prosecuting attorneys.

The pay increase of prosecutors in first class judicial circuits would be raised from $7,200 a year to $10,800, in second class circuits from $6,600 to $9,900, third class from $5,800 to $8,400 and fourth class from $5,000 to $7,200.

To provide the increases, the total state appropriation for the prosecutors would go up from $11,000 a year to $162,000. The recommended pay raises are the largest ever, since the council opened budget hearings Oct. 27.

The council also decided to ask the 1959 Legislature to consolidate all the microfilming of state records in one new department, and to pass a law requiring 27 small licensing and regulatory boards to deposit their money in the state treasury.

In other action, the council: 1. Turned down a request for $50,000 a year for watershed planning by the Geological and Conservation Commission. 2. Approved $30,000 a year for the State Sovereignty Commission, the same amount as the current appropriation.

3. Approved $135,000 a year, a raise of $30,000, for State Livestock Show premiums.

4. Approved $404,500 a year for the Arkansas Military Department, the same as the current appropriation.

5. Approved $95,100 in 1959-60 and $91,100 in 1960-61 for the state Auditor, an increase from the current figure of $85,350.

6. Approved $158,850 a year for the state Supreme Court, with $300 a year pay raises to three employees.

7. Approved $51,780 a year for the Secretary of State, compared to the current $48,900.

10. Approved $10,400 a year for the lieutenant governor, allowing a pay raise for a clerk.

11. Approved $17,800 for Veterans Service Office, a decrease from the current $51,400.

12. Continued the current appropriation of $250,000 a year for the Pea Ridge National Park Commission.

Adlai Heads Dinner for Brooks Hays

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Headed by Adlai Stevenson, friends of Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) plan a big dinner in his honor shortly before he surrenders his congressional seat to a Little Rock segregation leader.

Hays, who advocates a moderate approach by the South to its racial problems, lost out to Dr. Dale Alford, a strong segregationist. Alford entered the race as a write-in candidate a week before the November election. He defeated Hays by some 1,200 votes.

Subsequently, many friends of Hays decided on a dinner next Thursday to show how they feel about his defeat.

Calude D. Curlin, former aide to Hays and general chairman for the event, said at least 400 persons, many from Arkansas, will be here for the dinner.

It is being sponsored by 22 well-wishers. Included are Stevenson, Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.) and A. S. (Mike) Montgomery (D-Ola.), evangelist Billy Graham and others.

Curlin said many Republican bigwigs will be on hand. Among them will be Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming, Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas and Boyd Loomis, chairman of the National Labor Relations Board.

Since Hays is president of the Southern Baptist Convention, the guest list also will include many prominent Baptist and other churchmen.

Among the invited clergymen is Dr. Edward L. R. Elson, pastor of the National Presbyterian Church where President and Mrs. Eisenhower worship.

Another of the guests will be John F. Wells, owner and editor of a weekly newspaper in Arkansas.

13. Approved $73,300 in 1959-60 and $94,000 in 1960-61 for the Penitentiary Retirement System. It spent $29,121 in 1957-58.

14. Approved $80,100 a year for retirement of judges, the same as the current figure.

15. Approved a total of $12,000 for expenses of constitutional officers, the same as the current figure.

16. Referred to the Legislature's joint budget committee a request for $26,400 a year by the Livestock Sanitary Board's egg grading and inspection division.

Alabaman Tells Ike to Explain 10 Amendment

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A proposal overwhelming approval. An Alabama White Citizens Council official suggested today that President Eisenhower would do well to find "an able constitutional lawyer" to explain the 10th Amendment to him.

William E. Garner, vice chairman of the pro-segregation Montgomery Citizens Council, made his suggestion in a letter addressed to the President.

His letter was in reply to Eisenhower's criticism Wednesday of public officials who refused to cooperate with the federal civil rights commission during a hearing here this week.

The President termed the conduct of the Alabama officials "reprehensible."

Garner, a Montgomery attorney, said the President himself was guilty of the "reprehensible" kind of actions he attributed to the Alabama officials.

"The 'reprehensible' kind of thing which you talk about — the widespread disregard for the law of the land — really is happening," Garner wrote, "but not in Alabama. It is in the District of Columbia."

"There the Supreme Court has arrogated to itself the shaping of national policy and the decreeing of law by its whim; the radicals in Congress are abandoning principles to court the vote of left-wing minorities and you slavishly are serving as errand boy for both of those branches of government rather than acting as check on them as the Constitution commands."

Garner said American people, if called on to list "reprehensible" actions in U. S. history, "could place at the very top much of your own conduct — such as your sending elite troops to occupy and American city and bayonet its citizens."

Garner accused the President of

Ex-members of Cult Blamed for Bombing

By GENE HANDSAKER CHATSWORTH, Calif. (AP) — Tape recordings discovered near denouncing radicals in political speeches but "inviting them into the White House to advise you, as you did on June 29 when you conferred with an NAACP delegation the members of which have scores of citations of Communist affiliations."

"You have sounded an appeal for respect for the law," Garner said. "We suggest that you begin such a movement yourself by meeting at an early date with Attorney General Rogers and members of the Supreme Court and asking some able constitutional lawyer to explain to all of you the meaning of the 10th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution."

This amendment provides that powers "not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people."

the dynamited wreckage of the Fountain of the World monastery point to two former cult members as the bombers, police say.

Nine persons, possibly 10, were killed in Wednesday's earth-jarring explosion. The two dynamiters are believed to have shared the fate of their victims.

Detectives said the blast apparently was touched off by Ralph Muller, 33, and Peter Kamenoff, 42, both of Joshua Tree, Calif.

Tape recordings made by the pair the night before the dynamiting indicate they were angry at the leader of the cult, Krishna Vanta, and wanted to "bring him to justice," officers said.

The tapes, an hour long recital of grievances against Krishna and the cult, also were described as farewell messages and detectives believe the men deliberately blew themselves up.

Vanta, a barefooted, self-styled mystic, five of his flock and two children were killed in the explosion. One and perhaps two other bodies have also been recovered.

The violent explosion and the fire that followed made identification nearly impossible.

Muller and Kamenoff were seen in an argument with Vanta about an hour before the blast. Details of the quarrel were not known.

The tape recordings were found in Muller's pickup truck parked near the cult's 20-acre colony in Box Canyon, about 30 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

After listening to them, officers pieced together this story:

Muller and Kamenoff left their desert home in Joshua Tree — about 115 miles east of Los Angeles — picked up 20 sticks of dynamite and electric primers and drove to the cult area.

They registered at a motel in nearby Tarzana, set up their recorder and taped their last words.

"They said they wanted to bring Krishna Vanta to what they termed justice," said Undersheriff B. B. Cummings of Ventura County. "Whether they meant religious or otherwise, I wouldn't attempt to say."

Officers said Kamenoff blamed Vanta for separating him from his wife and child by persuading her to stay in the cult's Homer, Alaska, colony. Kamenoff also left a written farewell note, said Bothe men were construction workers. Kamenoff was a member of the cult from 1949 until 1957. Muller was a member off and on for several years.

Man Crippled by Burns, Dies in Fire

PERTH AMBOY, N.J. (AP) —

Harry Morrison, 73, crippled by burns in his childhood, buried to death in his apartment Wednesday while his wife stood outside, too shocked to tell firemen he was trapped.

An oil stove explosion sent five flashbooming through the three-room apartment in seconds, trapping Morrison in the bedroom. His wife Carolyn, 54, barley escaped.

Firemen arrived and found her sobbing before the burning building. "I told her to stand back," said Fire Chief Joe Bosie. "But for some reason she didn't tell me her husband was in there."

The Morrison apartment was on the first floor of a three-story brick apartment building near the business district. More than a dozen people fled the building.

Crew Killed, Five Missing in Crash

ALTUS, Okla. (AP) — A B32 Stratofortress, trailing fingers of fire, crashed near its home base today.

The Air Force said eight crewmen are missing. The plane's commander was found alive, but unconscious, a quarter of a mile from the fiery crater the big bomber dug out.

Air Force and civilian search parties searched a wide area of southwest Oklahoma in freezing weather, in a waning hope that there would be others who parachuted to safety.

Big Foreign Ministers Meet Talked

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Big Four foreign ministers conference next spring is being mentioned by many diplomats as a means of easing East-West tensions over Berlin.

Some officials are predicting, however, the three Western Allies will propose that such a meeting deal with the entire problem of Germany's future as well as Berlin.

American, British and French diplomats are reported giving increasing thought to the advantages of a new round of talks with the Russians. This prospect has been weighed carefully in considering a reply to Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand that West Berlin be turned into a free city.

The feeling that such new talks would be desirable appears to be gaining ground among Western diplomats. But a decision is being delayed until after the 15-nation Atlantic Pact Council meeting, which starts in Paris next Tuesday.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, now hospitalized by an intestinal ailment, is planning to attend the Paris conference, assuming he recovers in time. The State Department reported that Dulles is doing some work in his hospital suite in preparation for the meeting.

Allied authorities are in no hurry to rush an answer to Khrushchev's Berlin proposal.

The Atlantic Pact foreign ministers will discuss the reply generally, informants said, but will is readily obvious.

At best, this development will require considerable time and financing, which is not immediately in sight.

During the interim, some method should be found to protect the single interest in the state-owned block on which the Old State Capitol is located. This probably can best be done by continued maintenance of the outside of the old capitol building and restoration of the interior to something near its Civil War appearance.

A retaining wall and authentic brick walks on the grounds would add much to the stability, beauty and attractiveness of the site, and greatly increase its value as a tourist attraction now.

Prayer Starts Every Day for 80 Years

FAIRVIEW, Utah (AP) — All the days of their married life have started with a prayer, and today—their 80th wedding anniversary—was no exception for Peter and Celestia Peterson.

He is 98 and she is 97.

This central Utah town honored the couple with a testimonial dinner Wednesday night. A tape recording was made and will be played to them today because they couldn't make it to the dinner. Both are hard of hearing.

Mayor Otis Nielsen and Apostle

LeGrand Richards of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Church called their lives and marriage a shining example of love and devotion.

They were married Dec. 11, 1878, in St. George, Utah, 250 miles southwest of here.

"My wedding dress had ribbons on it, but Peter took them off," recalls the silver-haired Mrs. Peterson. "He said, 'You're pretty enough without those.'"

Peterson, then a strapping 13-year-old farmer, had driven a wagon load of grain eight days to get to St. George from here. The grain was sold to pay for their wedding journey, another eight-day trip by horse-drawn wagon through rugged mountainous country only recently cleared of hostile Indians.

Peterson credits their longevity to plain living and the fact that neither he nor his wife ever smoked or drank.

"We have always lived congenially," he said.

They have 253 blood descend-

Complains the Union Ignores Reform Idea

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal judge rules today on complaints that the corruption-tainted Teamsters Union is ignoring reforms suggested by the three monitors he named to guide a cleanup.

The possibilities open to Chief Judge F. Dickinson Letts of the U.S. District Court include ordering James R. Hoffa to get out as union president.

Hoffa contends he is under no compulsion to follow the monitors' suggestions.

Another federal district judge, James C. Connell of Cleveland, ruled only last week that the monitors' powers are purely advisory and that under a consent order signed last January by Letts, Hoffa could do as he pleased subject to the Teamsters Union constitution.

Connell's ruling is being appealed.

The issues in the case before Letts go back to the Teamsters' 1957 convention at which Hoffa was elected president to succeed Dave Beck Sr. Beck and Hoffa both had been named in testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee that large sums of union funds had been misappropriated.

A group of New York area rank-and-file Teamsters members brought suit here seeking to block Hoffa from taking over the union presidency on grounds he and Beck had rigged the election of delegates to insure Hoffa's victory.

That suit was compromised.

ants. Adding those related by marriage, the family tree numbers 326.

"I gave birth to 10 sons and daughters and only had a doctor for one of them," says Mrs. Peterson. Seven of the 10 survive, and are among those honoring their parents today.

with an agreement that Hoffa and other newly elected union officers could take over provisionally with the monitors named to police a union cleanup. Martin F. O'Donoghue, a lawyer who helped defend the Teamsters in early stages of the case, eventually became chief monitor.

After eight months of trying to the novel monitor arrangement, O'Donoghue and Godfrey P. Schmidt, another of the monitors, filed complaints with Letts contending that Hoffa was giving them the runaround and ignoring their suggestions for reforms. Schmidt was chief attorney for the original rank-and-file plaintiffs.

Johnson Will Everything Well in Check

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Look at the record indicates Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, won't have such a tough time as might be expected next year in keeping a check on the newly elected Senate Democrats.

There are 45 of them. Not one of them can be called wild-eyed. Almost all are moderate in their views. A majority of them—eight of the 15—were members of the House this year or in the recent past.

In the House they worked pretty quietly under the leadership of Speaker Sam Rayburn, boss of the House Democrats. Rayburn, like Johnson, is a Texan. Both men are moderates, are close friends and work closely together.

So, for a majority of the 15 new Senate Democrats, moving from the House is like exchanging Rayburn for Johnson.

The three Republicans who won Senate seats this year for the first time were all members of the House this year. They are Kenneth Keating, New York; Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania; and Winston L. Prouty, Vermont.

Johnson, who recently outlined a 12-point program for the Senate in 1939, omitted any mention of action on civil rights. On this point he may have trouble with some of the new men.

They may come up with the present band of liberals in the Senate—like Democrats Paul Douglas (Ill.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.) and Republicans Jacob Javits (N.Y.) and Clifford Case (N.J.). They can well block legislation on civil rights, if they want to, with unlimited debate. Changing the rule to make it easier to cut off filibusters would also make it easier to get civil rights bills through.

Senators were members of the House this year. They are: Claire McCarthy, California; Eugene McCarthy, Minnesota; and E. L. Bartlett, who had for years held seniority delegations in the House, without a vote.

These four were House members in past years:

Thomas J. Dodd, Connecticut; Harrison A. Williams Jr., New Jersey; Stephen M. Young, Ohio; and Jennings Randolph, West Virginia. The three new Republican Senators—Keating, Scott and

Caution Against Marriage Banned

TOKYO (AP)—A pamphlet cautioning against marriage between Americans and foreigners, particularly of another race, was banned today from the big Armed Forces Chapel in Tokyo.

Before U.S. military authorities threw it out, the pamphlet "If I Marry a Foreigner" was free for taking from the chapel's literature rack.

Chaplain Albert C. Schiff Jr. of Columbus Ohio, said the publication "is not an official pamphlet and was distributed inadvertently."

The pamphlet is attributed to Chaplain George W. Thompson—not further identified—and was Prouty—were House members this year.

Single—moderate to liberal; McCarthy—moderate to liberal; Byrd—liberal; Bartlett—moderate; Dodd—moderate to liberal; Williams—liberal; Young—moderate; Randolph—moderate.

This same newsmen, after watching the performance of the House members day after day from away back in the 1940s, describes both Keating and Scott as moderate to liberal. Prouty is from the very conservative Vermont.

No one around here is running for a bomb shelter, either, at the thought of what may happen when these other new Democratic Senators—none of whom served in the House—come here to take their seats in January.

Mayor Vance Hartke of Evansville, Ind., who calls himself a middle-of-the-road Democrat; Edmund S. Muskie, twice Democratic governor of highly conservative Maine; or—printed by the Moody Press of Chicago.

Michigan's Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart; Howard Cannon city attorney of Las Vegas, Nev.; Frank Moss, county attorney of Utah's Salt Lake County; Gale McGee, history professor of Wyoming; and Ernest Gruening, former Alaska governor who wants to avoid being labeled either a liberal or conservative.

"If you marry a foreigner," it said, "what reception will your kin give to the person you marry?"

An estimated 30,000 to 40,000 American servicemen have married Japanese girls since the end of World War II.

There was no indication who put the pamphlets in the Tokyo chapel. Chaplain Schiff said "apparently they were lying around for several days." He added that as far as he knew, none had been found in any of the other U.S. armed forces chapels in Japan.

To Inherit $43,000 But Not Until 1991

BLACKPOOL, England (AP)—A 15-year-old British boy will inherit $42,000 in 1991 if he hasn't spent two years in jail for larceny. He appeared in Juvenile Court Wednesday—on a larceny charge.

The boy pleaded guilty to stealing a camera and a rifle. The charge normally would result in sentencing to a juvenile detention center—not jail.

The boy's attorney said that would leave him still eligible for the inheritance.

The mother was left by an eccentric, senile, postured, seller. When he died in 1981, he said his adopted son could have the money when he became 48. But two or more years in jail for larceny would bar the boy from ever getting the money, the will stipulated.

Sentencing was postponed for two weeks to await a medical report. The youth's name was withheld.

Loss of engineering and science talent at a senior level has reached serious proportions, reports President John T. Rettalla of the Illinois Institute of Technology.

The Most Important Thing About

BAKING

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs the leavening action. Only when the ingredients are carefully balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven... That's the story of Clabber Girl's balanced double action.

Archie Comes Off Floor to Beat Durelle

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, more amazing than ever today set his sights on three big prize possibilities — A return fight with Yvon Durelle and rival Sugar Ray Robinson, and a fight with Sugar Ray Robinson and heavy weight ruler Floyd Patterson.

Of the three title fights, a summer ball park clash here with Durelle seemed the most likely after their thriller in the forum Wednesday night.

Old Man Moore's tremendous comeback to knock out the freckled Durelle in 49 seconds of the 11th round capped one of the most exciting fights of the last 10 years.

Moore hit the deck four times, three times in a lively first round, and then rallied to the last six rounds. He dropped his withering young rival four times, including the picture-punching finish in the 11th.

"Durelle put up a great fight and can have another chance if he wants it," said the remarkable 41-year-old champion from

SWC Meeting Expected to Be Harmonious

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A harmonious meeting was in prospect today as the Southwest Conference's football coaches and athletic directors convened for their annual winter meeting.

There were reports, one from columnist Jack Gallagher of the Houston Post, that some coaches would ask that newer, younger officials be assigned to next season's games. But if the coaches had this in mind they were keeping it to themselves on the eve of the meeting.

Conference rules forbid such discussions, however, and the meeting could erupt with some bitter talk. Coaches said to be objecting to the work of officials this year included those from Texas, Texas A&M, Baylor and Arkansas. Coaches regularly grade the strong challenger again brought a blood-thirsty howl from the fans when he sent Moore crashing to the canvas with a thundering right to the jaw. This time the crafty veteran had command of his senses and, after getting up at five, held on desperately as Yvon tried to put over the crusher.

When asked to evaluate his team's chances for the 1958-59 college basketball season, Coach Harry Litwack of the Temple Owls declined a prediction.

"Let's wait and see," he said.

Now, after Temple's fourth game, he knows this is a season of rebuilding for the Owls.

Temple lost to Princeton 90-54 Wednesday night for its third straight setback after an opening game victory over Georgetown. The other losses came at the hands of Lehigh and second-ranked Kentucky.

Last season Temple won third place in the NCAA Tournament and ranked fifth in the final Associated Press poll.

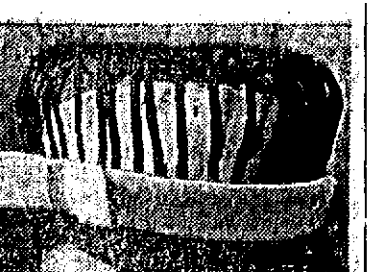

With Guy Rodgers, an All America selection, and four other first stringers graduating, Litwack has only two experienced returnees in Bill (Pickles) Kennedy and Ophie Franklin to go with a sophomore-studded squad, which lacks height.

A 32-point harvest by Jim Brannigan spearheaded Princeton to its success over Temple. All five Tiger starters hit double figures while sophomore Bernie Iverson topped the Owls with 18 points.

None of the nation's top 10 teams was scheduled Wednesday. Among the second 10 only Oklahoma State and St. John's (N.J.) each tied for 20th place, saw action. Both won handily. St. John's outclassing Brooklyn College 93-68 and Oklahoma State crushing Texas 60-39.

St. John's cleared its bench early as sophomore Tony Jackson and Captain Alan Seiden sparked the Redmen. Arlen Clark collected 30 points with Oklahoma State cruising to a 35-17 advantage at the half.

In other leading games, Purdue whipped DePaul 89-71 behind Jake Elson's 32 points. Dayton won its third straight with a 54-50 conquest of Miami of Ohio. Maryland disposed of Virginia 63-56 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game and Memphis State came from behind to upend Alabama 69-55.

Boyd Out at Baylor as Head Coach

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Baylor University started out to rebuild its athletic department today with Sam Boyd's resignation as head coach.

Boyd's resignation was announced today by two trustees. Boyd said he was under pressure to resign just before a meeting of the Baylor Board of Trustees at which a decision was to be made. Everybody expected that he would be fired because of two losing seasons. His tenure finished on the bottom of the Southwest Conference.

Three years ago he had been named to succeed George Sauer

Struggle to Shape Budget Economy

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The struggle to mold a new federal budget in the shape of economy looks as frustrating to many men in Wall Street today as it looks difficult to the fiscal experts in Washington.

"Economy is a fine goal but the odds are stacked against it, many believe.

And this discouragement, or cynicism, makes them feel that the current setup in inflationary pressures will last only a few more months at best.

The bulls in Wall Street seem sure of it. Consumer surveys indicate that the public expects another rise in prices.

Treasury deficits are only one of the inflationary pressures that from time to time send the cost of living higher. Among others are the wage-price spiral that pushes the cost of production higher; or credit inflation that comes when the rate of new investment exceeds the rate of capital formation through savings; or too little capacity to produce goods when demand is high.

The last two aren't operating just now. But the first two are. And many see continuing danger from them after the conditions now putting a brake on the rise in living costs lose the race.

Serious as this is, it's a year's prospective Treasury deficit of 12 billion dollars, bankers feel that the money managers so far are tackling the problem of containing its inflationary aspects with considerable success.

But the real misgivings — according to the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York in its December survey today — arise from the fact that this deficit is symptomatic of a rising tide of expenditure over which no one seems to have any real control.

What basically causes distrust of the dollar, the bank holds, "is the growing fear of deficit financing as a way of life."

There are those who contend that government spending also can have anti-inflationary aspects.

"This theory is that such spending stimulates the economy, causes incomes and profits to rise and thus helps the Treasury pare deficits. Inspires businessmen themselves to spend more, thus increasing productivity and holding down prices, and boosts consumer spirits so that they buy more and thus create jobs."

Frank Sinatra Simply Loves Florida

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Frank Sinatra loves Florida. He even plans to live there part of the year.

This is in the face of a report in Variety that Sinatra got the "treatment" during his recent visit to Miami Beach.

The local press needed him by claiming he didn't want to work and had engaged in too much partying. Also that the film company had fled Florida after "tan" aborted two weeks of shooting.

Not so, says Frank.

"We got some wonderful stuff down there," he said. "The scenery is just fabulous and we've got a lot of it on film. I don't think it has ever been shown in a movie before."

"We came back to Hollywood early because we had finished nearly everything we wanted. The only thing left undone was a scene in a cafeteria. Sinatra wants to go back there."

"I want just a small place like the one I have in Palm Springs, where I can turn the key and go away and leave it without a staff to keep it up."

Californians may not like this, but Sinatra does a rave about the Florida weather. He also argues that there's more sporting to be found down yonder, not just the golfing of California resorts.

If it's any consolation, he said he'll still make Hollywood his base of operations.

The new hard-luck picture, "Foray And Bess," somehow managed to complete its shooting this week, to the relief of Samuel Goldwyn, Otto Preminger and all hands. Preminger says it's the greatest film he ever directed, but confesses that he could write a book about his relations with the fabulously rich Goldwyns. "You can't get away from Hollywood. As I was leaving for a speech at the Fresno Press Club, the next fellow in the ticket line was Clark Gable. He and the missus were flying to Stockton for some hunting."

The yellow color of pure gold can be changed. Copper gives it a red shade; silver a green shade; and there are other minerals which can whiten this precious metal.

Only about one-third of the residents of Washington, D. C., were born in the city.

Butter prices shaded a penny or so higher in a few sections this week, but egg prices again "lump" have to six cents a dozen over a wide area. It's largely seasonal selling.

Relators again head the bargain list of fresh vegetables. Other outstanding bargains are mushrooms, eggplants, escarole, turnips, beets, carrots and radishes. Good buys are available in lettuce, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, yellow onions, sweet potatoes, cabbage, spinach and green beans.

Green squash, tomatoes, peppers and broccoli are fair bargains. Men of the South, oranges and grapefruit are on the bargain list. Good fruit buys also include northern pears, California grapes, Florida limes and coconuts from the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico.

Pork Likely to Be a Market Feature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Various cuts of pork will be featured in many supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend as a preview of 1959.

Bacon receives the special treatment in a good number of stores. While other pork bargains will be offered in shoulder roasts, picnic hams and pork loins, pork prices are expected to decrease next year and appear lower already.

Expectations of pork bargains are based on a fall pig crop well above last year, which should mean substantially increased hog marketing next spring.

A few stores will offer special prices on beef roasts and steaks. Scattered offerings of leg of lamb and frying chickens also are out there.

Will Combine
Drama, Humor and Fantasy

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Helen Deutsch says of her latest work, "The Christmas Tree," that it is "a sort of Christmas bombomiere, a potpourri of tinsel, baubles and dreams."

The hour program, to be presented Sunday at 7 p.m. EST on NBC-TV by "Hallmark Hall of Fame," is not a musical, drama or variety show. But it does combine a variety of music, drama, fantasy, sentiment and humor with a variety of talented performers several of them, most appropriate at this season, on skates.

Carol Channing and Cyril Ritchard will appear in a number combining pantomime and song. Neither needs any introduction to the television audience.

But it does seem that Miss Channing, the tall, lanky blonde comedienne and singer, will introduce an element of great suspense into the show.

Will she really be skating by Sunday? If she should fall, will she carry Richard with her? If they both fall, will both continue singing from the ice?

It would be indelicate to raise these questions if Miss Channing had not raised them herself in the course of a long ride to an ice skating rink.

Miss Channing confessed she abandoned skates in childhood because she couldn't stand on them without her ankles sagging inward.

By last Monday afternoon, however, she was standing quite well with the aid of ankle braces.

By Tuesday she was being pushed about the ice. She had even discovered a convenient way of stopping by bumping into Ritchard without once knocking him down. (Ritchard has been practicing on his skates much longer. He has been observed gravely curccling a small rink about the size of a shower-bath.)

Search Is on
for Missing
Fishing Boat

GRAND MARAIS, Minn., (AP) — A 50-foot fishing boat scheduled to carry four Lake Superior commercial fishermen and their wives from Isle Royale to the Minnesota shore was sought by the Coast Guard Wednesday.

The boat, the Jeffries out of Two Harbors, Minn., and owned by Milford Johnson Sr., a veteran fisherman, was believed still in the Isle Royale area in northwestern Lake Superior. All other Minnesota fishing boats have returned.

The Coast Guard cutter, Woodfish, in the area on patrol duty, but out a small boat to go ashore at Wright Island, in the Isle Royale group, where the fishermen's cabins are located.

Fog and extreme cold hampered coastguardmen who wore face masks to protect them from the zero cold.

In Two Harbors, Milford Johnson Jr., son of the Jeffries owner, said he was not concerned over the safety of his father and the others.

He said that in other seasons his father had remained in the Isle Royale area as late as Dec. 18. He said that as long as the Woodfish was in the area a request had been made to look in on the fishermen.

Reported on the Jeffries are the elder Johnson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holte, Grand Maraire, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Edson, Two Harbors, and another Johnson son, Frank, and his wife, also of Two Harbors.

REQUEST FULFILLED
EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP) — Last spring Clifford Gilbert said to members of his family, "I'm going to plant a fourth of an acre of squash — for the Lord."

At harvest time, Gilbert was dead.

The proceeds of his squash patch are going to the Miller Chapel Church.

ALLEY OOP

"THAT WAS OUR OLD FRIEND AL OOP BRONSON..."

"...SEEMS HE'S INTERESTED IN THAT FOSSIL MAN THEY DUG UP OUT OF A COAL MINE IN ITALY..."

"OH, YES! I RECALL READING ABOUT THAT..."

"LOREOPITHECUS, I THINK THEY CALL 'IM..."

"THAT'S RIGHT, ONLY BRONSON'S NOT SATISFIED JUST GALLING HIM..."

"...HE WANTS OLD ORO TO ANSWER 'IM BACK!"

CAPTAIN EASY

"YOU SEE, ELLEN, WHEN THE BREAKS GO AGAINST HER, AN ACTRESS HAS TO TAKE WHAT SHE CAN GET. I'VE HAD TO..."

"I UNDERSTAND, MOTHER. YOU CAN'T ALL BE STARS! ALL THE TIME!"

"YOU'VE GOT TO KNOW THE TRUTH. FOR TWO YEARS I'VE DANCED IN CHEAP NIGHT CLUBS MOSTLY, SCRAPING BY IN SHABBY HOTELS!"

"OH, I'M SORRY BUT YOUR LUCK WILL TURN AGAIN! AND I DON'T MIND SCRAPING!"

"ELLEN, I DON'T EVEN HAVE A SPOT NOW. YESTERDAY I WAS FIRED AT THE CLUB!"

"MOTHER! ARE YOU TRYING TO TELL ME I CAN'T STAY WITH YOU?"

BLONDIE

"DID I HEAR THE FRONT DOOR SLAM?"

"DAGWOOD, WAKE UP! YOU'RE WALKING IN YOUR SLEEP!"

"I WISH YOU WOULDN'T WAKE ME UP. YOU KNOW HOW HARD IT IS FOR ME TO GET BACK TO SLEEP!"

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

"DOR! 'CASTILIA SOAP' HAS GONE UP ONE WHOLE POINT!"

"I BET THAT'S ON ACCOUNT OF I BOUGHT A CAKE OF IT YESTERDAY, MAM!"

"I'LL BUY ONE MORE TODAY AND PUSH IT UP ANOTHER POINT!"

PRISCILLA'S POP

"THAT WAS A GOOD MOVIE! TERRIFIC!"

"YES! WE SAW IT LAST YEAR ON THE SAME PROGRAM!"

"WE DID??"

"WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME?"

"A WHOLE EVENING WASTED! (REALLY DEAR, I JUST DON'T UNDERSTAND YOU)"

OUR BOARDING HOUSE With Major Hoople

"WHAT'S THAT? PIECES OF CHEESE WRAPPED UP IN NEWS PAPER? IT TAKES THE DOG A LONG TIME TO GET THE CHEESE OUT? DON'T YOU THINK THAT'S KIND OF CRUEL, TORTURE? A DOG LIKE THAT JUST FOR LITTLE PIECES OF CHEESE ALL THOSE BUNDLES?"

"NO, IT AIN'T CRUEL! IT'S JUST SELF DEFENSE! WHILE HE'S OPENING ONE OF THEM BUNDLES, I GOT TIME TO GET A FEW BITES MYSELF. WITHOUT HIM SITTING THERE, GAZING UP AT ME WITH A HANGRY LOOK IN HIS EYES, I LIKES IF I WAS A BIG BOY, TRY IT ONCE -- GIVE HIM A CHUNK, AN' ONE GULP AN' HE'S BITTIN' PEOPLE DON'T HAVE TIME TO WANT SO MUCH!"

"OUT OF THAT EASY CHAIR, YOU OVER-STUFFED BARN OWL! I NEED A BOX OF PAPER NAPKINS FROM THE CORNER, AND IF THAT'S TOO MUCH TO CARRY, YOU CAN BRING THEM HOME ONE AT A TIME!"

"I WILL IGNORE YOUR CRUEL TAUNTS! MY LOVE! YOU BEHOLD A MAN WHOSE FERTILE IMAGINATION HAS YIELDED AN IDEA THAT WILL ONE DAY PLACE THE NAME OF HOOPLE BESIDE THAT OF THOMAS EDISON AND ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL! -- BUT I'LL BE GLAD TO TAKE TIME OUT FROM MY HERCULEAN MENTAL LABORS TO BE OF SERVICE TO YOU!"

"(ABANDON SHIP, MATEY!)"

BUGS BUNNY

"THANKS, DOC!"

"REALLY DON'T FORGET I CARRY MY BRIDE OVER MY THRESHOLD!"
